

BWC1 Solid Rubber Wheel Chock

PRODUCT DETAILS

- Wheel chocks for securing vehicles up to 4T on inclined surfaces
- They can also be used to prevent vehicle movement in the workshop while lifting them
- The solid rubber material and gridded support surface ensure optimal slip resistance
- Supplied in pairs
- ROHS certified
- Retail packed

PRODUCT ATTRIBUTES

| Product     |  |  |  |  |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BWC1 | 110 mm                                                                              | 77 mm                                                                               | 75 mm                                                                                 | 0.655 kg                                                                              |

Follow the Fish!

